

I oppose further consolidation of the media market. Allowing corporate giants to own more stations etc. will lead to less diversity and less free speech. The airways are the public's. It is not in the public's interest to foster less competition and less free speech. Please do not weaken the regulations.